Ariat Sport Low Rider Breeches

I am always looking for new or different breeches to wear, ones that fit well, lower on the waist rather than highwaisted. I finally found a pair, the Ariat Sports. They fit perfectly, they have the waist “V” fit that seems to make the waist fit snugly to you and not bunch up. The waist band is wider than most and it is a more comfortable fit.. They are machine washable, which is hard to find these days in good breeches.

They don't pick, the fabric is cool and seems to breathe. Beige is the main color but can also be purchased in black, khaki and fawn.

They also do not ride down, like many well fitting breeches do. They stay in place!
